Rev. Winkler Is Returned to City As M. E. Pastor

The annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church met in Long Beach from June 28 to July 4. Some 450 ministers were in attendance, representing the Methodist churches of Southern California and Arizona. Bishop James C. Baker, the newly appointed bishop of the San Francisco area, presided.

The pastoral appointments for the coming year were read Monday afternoon, revealing numerous changes in pastors throughout the conference. Rev. Kemp J. Winkler, pastor of the local Methodist church, was appointed for another year. He states that the conference session this year was one of the most progressive and forward looking ever held. CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST
Communion services will be conducted on Sunday, July 10, in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. "Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon.
One of the Scriptural selections includes these verses from John: "Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; he riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself. After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. . . . So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you."
A passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, states: "Christianity is the basis of true healing. Whatever holds human thought in line with unselfed love, receives directly the divine power."
